NORTH WEST HOUSING CORPORATION CEO MEETS JTC AND TENANTS OF KAGISO, KAMOGELO AND WIMPY FLATS

The CEO of North West Housing Corporation, Bishop Sello Mogodiri will convene a meeting with tenants of Kagiso, Kamogelo and Wimpy Flats on Wednesday 18 September at Mmabatho Civic Centre in Mahikeng. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the greater interconnectedness of challenges with regards to non-payment of rentals. The CEO will introduce opportunities that exists for the 'gap' market or first-time ownership to tenants whose household income is from R3 501 up to R22 000 per month.

The meeting will be addressed by the CEO side-by-side a delegation from Joint Tenants Committee (JTC). The public discussion is meant to deepen cooperation with the tenants.

"It is critical that we meet and deepen cooperation with tenants," says Mogodiri. "Parliament has said we collect nothing, and if you collect nothing how do you justify your existence as a business. So, we have decided to hit the ground at a full sprint to enhance revenue collection for the entity.

We are acting this way to constraint further non-payment, and we need everyone onboard," Mogodiri says.

The JTC has said they welcome and strongly support the CEO's effort to meet with the tenants.

“We are not in dispute of non-payment,” said JTC’s Daddy Sebolecwe. “ We welcome the positive confirmation from the CEO. However, we wish that the resumption of rental payments runs concurrently and simultaneously with the flip subsidy process. This will give us comfort and ease the tenants’ fears. ”

The meeting resumes at 5pm at Mmabatho Civic Centre.
